

The "Boogie" brings many dancers back year after year to enjoy a unique beach setting, great bands and callers and a wonderful facility on the coast of North Carolina. This year's line-up is a high-energy combination that should be a blast!

Great food, with vegetarian dishes available at every meal. The dance level at the "Boogie" is for dancers who have some contra dance experience. Attendance is limited to about 130 dancers.

Since New Year's Eve falls on a Sunday this year, you can spend Saturday at Trinity Center for an extra $45/night/room (not per person)

The Bogue Banks Boogie

The Trinity Camp and Conference Center is a beautiful facility nestled into the maritime forest between the sound and the sea on a North Carolina barrier island at Pine Knoll Shores.

Its contemporary building "pods" offer private double and triple occupancy rooms with private baths and a central living room area in each cluster. A dining room serves great home-cooked meals (including vegetarian selections). Dancing is in a light, airy recreation building for bringing in the New Year!

Guests can also opt to make it a long weekend with an extra night or two to better enjoy bird watching, walks on the beach or just relaxing with fellow dancers. 2017/2018 Boogie Schedule:

Sunday, DECEMBER 31, 2017:

1:00 pm Check in, settle in, maybe a beach walk
4:00 pm Dance (4 to 5:30)
6:00 pm Dinner in the dining room
8:00 pm New Year's Eve Dance
11:59 pm Champagne Toast
Midnight First Waltz of the New Year
12:30 'til? Snacks, drinks, socialize

Monday, JANUARY 1, 2018

Dancing children are welcome. Sorry, no pets. Bring a flashlight. No need to bring bedding or towels. To extend your visit ($45 per room per night): contact Chris Mohr cmohr@trinitycenter.com Greener Dec 1-20 at the Trinity Center (252) 247-5600

The Band . . .

David DiGiuseppe, Ted Erhard, Roger Gold

DiGiuseppe is a nationally recognized accordionist known for his fiery and emotive playing. David plays for contra dances throughout the US with his bands Footloose, Contrazz, and The Ivory Boys.

Fiddler Ted Erhard began playing the violin at age 9 and has scarcely stopped since. Ted twice won the Fiddler of the Festival award at Fiddler's Grove, Union Grove's successor. He has played for contra dances with Footloose, Contrazz and other diverse bands.

Roger Gold's guitar styles range from classical to hard driving, rhythmic, contra dance music. He enjoys contra dancing, and enjoys playing music for contra dances, and has yet to figure out how to do both at the same time

The Caller . . .

Jesse Edgerton

Jesse Edgerton began calling at open-caller nights at the Old Farmer's Ball in Asheville, NC, in 2003. He soon caught the calling bug, honing his craft up and down the eastern US, calling weekly and monthly dances from Tin Mouth, Vermont to Atlanta, Georgia, and everywhere in between. Jesse has delighted dance weekend crowds as well, calling for MoonDance, Summer Soiree, the Youth Dance Weekend, and even a week at American Week at Pinewoods in Massachusetts. Jesse brings an infectious enthusiasm to his calling that will get dancers moving and having fun. He is very excited about welcoming in the New Year at Bogue Banks Boogie.
